A FREE AND EASY PLACE FOR PRISONERS.—Luke Nolan, of Utica, N. Y., has for nearly a week been on trial, on a charge of larceny.—On the 12th instant, about noon, the Utica Herald says, the judge charged the jury, and they retired to deliberate, when one of the most extraordinary escapes we have ever heard of took place.

During the momentary confusion in the court, occasioned by the close of the trial, and the jury leaving the room, the prisoner, who sat within the bar, arose and walked out of the court room. The constable very politely opened the door, and the criminal walked out nobody saying a word! He passed down stairs into the street, and went—nobody knows where. Several of the city officers were called to the service, and were making an industrious but fruitless search at last accounts.

Altogether this is the joke of the season.—Imagine a criminal sitting but a few feet from the Sheriff, surrounded by constables, walking deliberately out of the court room while the jury are deliberating upon his case, and that, too, under the very eye of a justice on the bench?

We understand that the jury, after being out five minutes, found the prisoner guilty. On their return they could not render their verdict, of course, as the law requires the prisoner to be present, and they were discharged from the further consideration of the case.

☞A BUTCHER'S SHOP IN PARIS.—A considerable crowd some few days back, presssed round a new butcher's esteblishment at the corner of the Rue Tronchet and the Rue Neuvedes-Methurins. Upwards of thirty metres in length, it is entirely filled up with white marble on supports of porphyry. The counter is also of white marble on silver cary atides. A fountain of water six feet in diameter, plays in the centre of the shop, and vases of flowers and shrubs are disposed about with a certain degree of taste. Thirty-nine persons are employed in the establishment, which offers each morning for sale 20 oxen, 20 calves, and 60 sheep. The great novel feature of this establishment is that, while professing to sell cheaper than any other shop in Paris, it delivers with each parcel of meat a ticket which entitles the buyer to a share in the profits at the end of the month. It is reported that thrifty fathers of families are now forcing their appetites to eat enormous quantities of meat in the idea that they are thereby laying up portions for their daughters.

☞"Prisoner, stand up! Are you guilty or not guilty?" "Faith, do you think I'd be after doing the work of a jury, when they are paid for it! Let them find it out!"

Disgusted with their company.

Robert H. Kerr, Esq., the Harrisburg correspondent of the Pittsburg Post, who was a member of the Forney Convention of the 13th inst., was the only man who had the moral courage to dissent from the treason fulminated by the parasites who composed that memorable gathering.

The gentleman has always been a Democrat from principle, and has supported the men and measures of the Democratic party for thirty one years, with a zeal, devotion and efficiency that fairly entitles him to the name of a Democrat. Believing that the men who composed the gathering on the 13th inst., assembled at the Capitol merely for the purpose of paying an empty compliment to His Excellency, Wm. F. Packer, and that the meeting contemplated nothing beyond that, he was induced to give his countenance. But when he heard the speech of John Hickman, in which that worthy took occasion to denounce, with a venom and bitterness of vituperation that would do credit to the most relentless enemy of the Democratic party, and finding that the object of Hickman, Forney, Packer, Knox, "et id omne genus," was to array themselves against the organization of the Democratic party, and to throw themselves, body and breeches, into the arms of the Black Republicans, Mr. Kerr could stand it no longer, but at once jumped to his feet and commenced to denounce both the treason and the traitors. But this was too much for them. Benton was speedily called to order by Forney himself, who, it is said by those who stood near him, trembled in his boots when Kerr got the floor, because he knew that the gentleman would expose the traitor camp in a style that would be neither pleasant nor flattering.

The President of the Convention declared [illegible] out of order who had the manliness to denounce the disorganizers to their teeth. But Mr. Kerr accomplised one object at least, and that was to cut loose from the parasites, and to show his contempt for both the men and the movement.

Mr. Kerr told them he would support the candidates nominated by the legally constituted Convention of the 16th of March; whilst the parasites, by their resolutions, solemnly resolved they would not. Who can doubt for a moment now, that the object of this Mass Meeting was not to disorganize the party, and to declare war to the knife against its organization and its candidates? The men who can doubt, after this unequivocal and shameless audacity, would not believe "though one rose from the dead" and proclaimed it on the house-tops.

To the Editors of the Patriot and Union:

GENTLEMEN:—The published proceedings in your paper does me injustice. The temporary Chairman I consider honest enough to select officers, but in no instance or in no way, have I ever acted or sanctioned opposition to the regularly nominated candidates. I regard it the duty of all Democrats to support the nominees of the March Convention.

I was willing that Governor Packer's administration should be fully endorsed. But further than that I could not act with the destructive spirits who met to spit out their venom on the President.

The address and resolutions are of such a nature that I could not sanction. Had the President—Mr. McKinney—not ruled me out of order, at the bidding of Mr. Forney, I would have shown that their aim was the destruction of the party. Men who are drifting into the vortex of our enemies cannot teach me lessons. There was nothing left for me to do but to vote against their proceedings and withdraw my name from their Convention.

Democrats, who have not been disappointed, will act with their usual integrity by sustaining the ticket of the regular Convention.

I will here remark that I am under no personal obligations to President Buchanan or Governor Packer. I have sustained them because the Democracy placed them in power—disregarding petty malice from interested sources. Truly &c.,

STATE HOUSE, April 14th. R. H. KERR.

No hope for Printers.

When Dr. Franklin's mother-in-law first discovered that the young man had a hankering for her daughter, that good old lady said she did not know so well about giving her daughter to a printer; there was already two printing offices in the United States and she wasn't certain the country would support them. It was plain young Franklin would depend for his support upon the profits of a third, and this was rather a doubtful case. If such an objection was urged to a would-be son-in-law when there were but two printing offices in the United States, how can a printer hope to get a wife now, when the present census shows the number to be 15,067.

Andrew Jackson.

The following anecdotes of this stern, brave, self-reliant hero, are from the New York Century. We know they will be perused with interest:

The French Government, it will be remembered, after agreeing to pay twenty-five millions of francs to the United States as an indemnity for aggression on our commerce, failed to perform its engagements. General Jackson, in his message of 1824, denounced their course, and called upon Congress to stand by him in an unflinching demand for the performance of the treaty by which the indemnity was established. The French Government then made appropriations for the payment of the money, but took offence at the tone of the message, and demanded an apology or explanation. The situation was serious. The money was ready to be paid, and the only prerequisite was a graceful gloss in the next annual message to the straight forward, downright tone of that which had preceded it. The Cabinet met and deliberated; the draft of the new message was laid before them; the French question was taken up in its order, and there was some discussion among the Secretaries. While they deliberated, their Chief seized his pen and wrote—a single sentence, condensed as a cartridge, solid as a cannon ball, pointed as a bayonet—"The honor of my country shall never be stained by any apology from me for the statement of truth and performance of duty." This ended the debate. The sequel is well known; the indemnity was paid, and amicably paid.

The Century relates the incident of the attempt to assassinate the old warrior while he was standing on the portico of the Capitol at Washington, and then gives us this amusing reminiscence:

More ludicrous than this was an attack that never was made, the story of which the General used to tell with a keen relish of its humor. A certain Mississippi politician, of some note, opposed him bitterly before and after his election to the Presidency. During the former period General Jackson had, in some public speech or remark, expressed his opinions of this gentleman, in very strong Saxon; the indignant politician vowed vengeance, gave out that he meant to chastise the General the next time he met him, and published his intentions with such assiduity, that the threat reached the Hermitage and the ears of the subject of the meditated chastisement. Shortly after, General [illegible] Washington. He halted [illegible] known baiting place for travelers, and [illegible] standing in the door, a stage coach filled with passengers drove up, and the tired inmates began to alight. The quick eye of the old soldier detected on the back seat his pugnacious adversary. The General drew himself up, and stood conspicuous in the doorway, awaiting the promised attack. The passengers descended, one by one, but when it came to our Mississippian, strange to say, he kept his seat, declined getting out, and was driven to the stables, where he quietly remained until the hour for departure, sending into the tavern by one of the hostlers for a julep, with which he regaled himself at a safe distance from danger.

We have room for only another:

The spirit which we associate with the age of chivalry is reproduced in all brave men.—Jackson prided himself on his loyal devotion to the fair sex. No hostilities or rivalries, military or political, interfered with its display. Mr. Clay's speech on the Seminole war, delivered in the House of Representatives in the winter 1819, denouncing, as a flagrant instance of military insubordination, created a wide breach and very bitter feeling between them. The General was afterwards on his way to Washington, to take his seat in the Senate of United States, and happening to pass Mr. Clay's house, he was asked by one of his companions if he had any objections to stop and pay a visit to Mrs. Clay. His prompt reply was "No. I have no quarrels with the ladies," and he accordingly alighted at the door and paid his respects to the wife of the most prominent of his opponents and the most powerful of his denunciators.

Devotion Helps Intellect.

All knowledge relates more or less directly to the character and works of God. All the sciences are developments of his attributes.—Astronomy, mathematics, natural and mental philosophy, &c., are but so many ways in which the laws of God's great empire is made known to us. The child at school learning the simplest combination of numbers, and the philosopher who soars to the sublimest height of science, are alike conversant with the works of God. The intellect of the one may be to the other as half a dozen rays to the full beams of the sun; but yet, it is what God is, or what God has done, that occupies the attention of both.

Now, as it is God's works that occupy the intellectual powers, so it is most reasonable to suppose that those who come to the study of these works, or, in other words, engage in any intellectual pursuits, if they bring a right state of heart towards God, will enjoy peculiar advantages for success. The mind, being in happy harmony with Him will move with vigor and power. A cheering sense of his favor will animate it. Each intellectual attainment, is a new discovery of a Being chosen already as the heart's ideal of supreme goood; it is the perception of some new and lovely feature in the face of a friend. "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God."

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the widow or children of any decedent entitled to retain three hundred dollars out of such decedent's estate by the law of this Commonwealth, and every person entitled to the exemption provided for in the act, entitled "An Act to exempt property to the value of three hundred dollars from levy and sale on execution or distress for rent, approved the ninth [illegible] the same, or any part thereof, out of any bank notes, money, stocks, judgments, or other indebtedness to such person; and that in all cases hereafter where property shall be set apart for the widow and children of any decedent, the same shall be appraised and set apart to said widow and children by the appraisers of the other personal estate of said decedent.

W. C. A. LAWRENCE,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
JNO. CRESSWELL, JR.
Speaker of the Senate.

Approved the eighth day of April, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine. WM. F. PACKER.

DEATH OF THE OLDEST MAN IN PENNSYLVANIA.—We learn from an exchange that Mr. Timothy Sweeney, died in Fairview township, Butler county, recently, at the advanced age of one hundred and twenty-two years. The deceased was born in the year 1737, in Carahan, parish of Ardfert, county of Kerry, Ireland, and emigrated to this country in 1837, being then one hundred years old. He was never known to have an hour's sickness even up to the day of his death, but was always remarkably stout and healthy, having the full use of all his faculties to the last, with a delicacy of hearing and a quickness of perception that wererеally miraculous in one who had journeyed so far beyond the allotted bounds of earthly existence.

OHIO COMING RIGHT.—We gave a few days since a list of Democratic victories in Ohio.—There seems to be a complete revolution going on in that State, which will most likely wheel into the Democratic line in the great contest of 1860.—N. Y. News.

☞Sore-headed Mr. Forney is holding a convention on his own account in Pennsylvania, assisted by sore-headed Mr. Hickman, and sundry Black Republicans; and, strange to say, neither Forney nor any of his followers seem to be suited with "the Administration." This perhaps is not so strange as the amount of impudence they exhibit in calling their meeting "the Democratic Convention of Pennsylvania." This is equal to the Black Republicans celebrating Jefferson's birth-day.—Hartford Times.

☞The Senate of our State Legislature elects one-third of its members each year, two-thirds, or twenty-two, holding over. The political complexion of those who hold over at this time is as follows: Eleven Democrats, eleven opposition. Of the retiring Senators, six are Democrats, and five opposition.

☞The report from all sections of the country is that the winter grains are in good condition, and prospering finely. The prospect for a heavy harvest of wheat is very good, and fall barley and rye seems to be flourishing upon the same general principles.

☞"I say, Mick, what sort of potatoes are those you are planting!" "Raw ones, to be sure—your honor wouldn't be thinking I would plant boiled ones."

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

A Mass Meeting of the Democrats of Bedford County, will be held at the Court House, on Monday evening of Court week, May 2d, for the purpose of ratifying the nominations of the 16th of March Convention. Rally! Democrats, Rally!

JACOB REED,
Chairman Dem. Co. Com.

A FEW WORDS ABOUT ORGANIZATION.

Every Democrat must feel the necessity of compact and complete organization, in order to ensure the success of the Democratic ticket at the coming election. The lines must be drawn closely and every tent in the Democratic host must be sentineled watchfully and incessantly. We must be a solid, impregnable phalanx, steadily marching to battle, and thinking of nought but victory and the discomfiture of the enemy.

In the last compaign our time was frittered away in intestine warfare over the Lecompton question, whilst our opponents improved every moment by a quiet, but general and thorough organization of their forces. Besides, thousands of Democrats remained at home on election-day, because they supposed that the Democracy of Pennsylvania would, as usual, be sucessful by an overwhelming majority. The result was that we were defeated. Shall this lesson be forgotten now that we are about to enter into another contest with our foe? Shall we stand idle and listless when vigilance and activity alone can give us success? Democrats! Pennsylvania is to be redeemed. The black banner of Abolitionism, waves over the "Old Keystone" in mockery of all your past triumphs. Will you not pluck it down? Shall it not be replaced with the "Stars and Stripes" of Democracy, the banner of the Union and the Constitution? Ay, it shall be done! But to accomplish it, we must organize. Every man must go to his post and labor for the cause.—There are democratic votes enough in Pennsylvania this hour, to elect our State ticket by fifteen thousand majority. But these votes are of no account, unless they are polled. Bedford county could have given at least 300 more of a majority last Fall than she did, if every Democrat had gone to the polls. Other counties also could have polled many more [illegible] longing to, it is worth working for. If our principles are correct, as we all firmly believe they are, it is our duty to labor for their triumph. Therefore, we say, organize! organize! Let every township and borough have its vigilance committee and let that committee work steadily and steadfastly for the good of the party.

LETTING OF THE BEDFORD RAILROAD.

It will be seen by reference to an advertisement in to-day's Gazette, that the Bedford Railroad Company propose to let the graduation and masonry of their road between the towns of Hopewell and Bloody Run, on the 25th day of May next. The reason that the portion of the road between Bloody Run and this place will not then be let, is the unwillingness of the land-holders along that part of the route to give the Company the right of way. The damages demanded by these people amount to more than all the stock subscribed in Bedford county. It is almost certain that so long as the right of way cannot be obtained for a reasonable consideration, there will be no railroad made between Bedford and Bloody Run. The part of the road which is to be let, will be made altogether by foreign subscriptions. Bedford county will not be called upon to contribute a dollar to the making of the twelve miles between Hopewell and Bloody Run. The subscriptions obtained by the President, Mr. SCHELL, from capitalists outside of the county, will alone be relied upon for that purpose.—As for the remainder of the road, we still hope to see it made before many years shall have elapsed. Certainly the public spirit of the people between this place and Bloody Run, will not always be so weak as to deny the Company the right of way. The "sober, second thought" will, doubtless, yet make them the friends of the road. So mote it be.

ATLANTIC MONTHLY.—The May number of this, our favorite among the Magazines, is on our table. The contents are, as usual, rich and varied. Mrs. Stowe's new serial, "The Minister's Wooing," is continued, as is also that admirable novelette, entitled "Bulls and Bears." The Professor at the "Breakfast Table," still pours forth his store of Wit and Philosophy, whilst gems from the pens of our standard poets, continue to sparkle and adorn. The "Gymnasium," "Two Years After," "In the Pines," and "A Bundle of Old Letters," are all very readable. The "Atlantic Monthly" is published by Phillips, Sampson & Co., Boston, Mass. Price $3 00 per annum. To clergymen, teachers and post-masters, $2 00.

☞The essay on Talent vs. Genius, will be published in our next. Want of space precludes its insertion this week.

SOMERSET COUNTY O. K.

We copy an article from the Somerset Democrat, from which it will be seen that that paper condemns in strong terms the action of the recent Convention of would-be disorganizers.—The Democrat was one of the few Democratic papers in the State, which favored the call for that Convention. Our friend, Mitchell, has righted himself, and we are heartily glad that he has done so. His heart is always right with the Democracy, and we can only wonder that he trusted Forney, Knox & Co., as far as he did. The Democrat talks as follows:

As our readers are already aware, a mass Convention of the Democracy of this State was to have been held at Harrisburg on the 13th instant. It was held, and was permanently organized by the selection of Alexander McKinney, of Westmoreland county, as its President, assisted by a number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries. The resolutions are not such, taking them as a whole, as will commend themselves to the noble-hearted Democracy of this State. They are factious and disorganizing, opposed to conciliation and harmony, opposed to healing the unfortunate breach that already exists, and should be frowned down by every true and loyal member of the party. We had hoped and were half-persuaded, that the call for this Convention was made for a very different purpose—that it was issued with the view to bind up the wounds of the party, and to heal all divisions. But in that hope we have been disappointed, and in that half-way belief we have been utterly deceived. Instead of acting as true friends of the party, they have done what they could, and all they could, to widen the breach which so unhappily existed. They have repudiated the regularly nominated Democratic State Ticket—they have resolved to nominate another ticket, and by so doing they have resolved, deliberately and with malice prepense, to aid the Abolitionists in defeating the Democratic party of the State—and as such we repudiate its action, and cleanse ourselves of any sympathy we may have had in the movement. We had hoped for better things from men professing to be Democrats. We knew that the holding of this Convention could do us no further harm, if conducted in a spirit of candor and true Democracy, and might do us a great deal of good—and such being the case we took no stand against it in the outstart.—We were willing it should be held, but were determined to rebuke its action if that action tended to enlarge the schism that already existed in our ranks. That its object and action was such—that it was assembled for that purpose and for no other, we are fully convinced—and as a Democrat who has no sympathy with factious opposition in our own ranks, and who never can consent to give "aid and comfort" to the Abolitionists, by opening to them the way to victory, we condemn and repudiate the object, intent and action of this late so-called Democratic State Convention.

HON. WILLIAM P. SCHELL.

We copy below an article which lately appeared in the Philadelphia Argus, the whole tenor of which we heartily endorse. Mr. Schell has made an able, active and useful Senator:

"Among the many prominent young Democrats in the State of Pennsylvania, [illegible] occupies a more enviable position [illegible] principles of the party, than Hon. William P. Schell, at present Senator from the Bedford District. He began his legislative career as a Representative in the General Assembly from the counties of Cambria, Bedford and Fulton, to which position he was re-elected by a majority much larger than that usually given to the Democratic party.—At the commencement of his second session in the House, he was chosen Speaker, and it is rendering him but simple justice to say that he made one of the most efficient and popular presiding officers that body ever had. At the expiration of that session, he resumed the practice of the law in Bedford and Fulton counties.—He was solicited to become a candidate for Congress in his District, at a time when a nomination would, in his case, have been equivalent to an election, but he declined, preferring the quiet life of his own home, to the turmoils, and too often empty honors of a Congressional career.

But the people of his district were not willing to dispense with his services, and in 1857, the Senatorial conference representing the counties of Bedford, Somerset and Huntingdon, voluntarily and unanimously nominated him for the State Senate. This nomination he twice declined, but the delegates, knowing his personal and political popularity, refused to accept his declination, and he was in a manner forced to become a candidate. When he found that the Democracy thus demanded him for their standard bearer, he went to work with zeal and energy, and the result was his triumphant election in a district which usually gives an Opposition majority of two thousand. By this result the Senate was saved to the Democracy, because it is well known, that in the present session that party has but one of a majority. This predominance was secured mainly through the popularity of Mr. Schell, because he carried a district almost hopelessly against us, and he was probably the only Democrat in it who could have been elected.

Since he took his seat in that body, his course has been marked by the same ability and integrity that has always characterized his official career. He has been watchful of the people's interests, and has originated several measures calculated to save the public treasury from depletion, and advance the prosperity of the Commonwealth."

☞The Pittsburg Post, Allentown Democrat, Somerset Democrat, Perry county Democrat, and Armstrong Democrat, all repudiate the action of the late Forney Convention. These journals sympathized with Forney in the beginning, but have been brought to their senses, by the open and undisguised hostility to Democracy manifested by the Forney-ites. Forney will not have a corporal's guard of Democrats to accompany him to the Black Republican ranks.

☞The Greensburg Democrat is one of the most reliable Democratic newspapers published in Western Pennsylvania. The last number tells some plain truths concerning certain of the disorganizers. We wish the Democrat God speed in its good work of placing such men as John M. Laird and Alex. McKinney in their proper position.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

THE PILLAR OF FIRE; OR ISRAEL IN BONDAGE. By Rev. J. H. INGRAHAM, author of "The Prince of the House of David." New York: Pudney & Russell. Philadelphia: G. G. EVANS, 439 Chestnut Street.

"The Prince of the House of David" has had a sale unexceeded by any volume of its size and character. In that work the effort was made to illustrate events in the land of Judea, by the letters of a Jewish maiden. In this a young prince of Phenicia is supposed to write form Egypt. The condition of the children of Israel, and the wonders wrought by Moses, form the staple of the work, and as much of Egyptian history and description is introduced as is necessary to complete the picture, and give it fullness and unity. Mr. Ingraham has diligently consulted all accessible authorities upon the antiquities and customs of Egypt, and the volume is the result of long and patient study. Many difficulties attend an undertaking of such a nature, and justice to the writer requires that the preface and appendix should be read before the text of the work. The object is to promote a knowledge of the Bible, by leading readers to compare and verify, and search for themselves. The material for the volumes, it is proper to say, is drawn from other sources, and the imagination of the writer is employed to fill up, from brief data, a continuous narative. It is a Phenician and cotemporary view of the scenes and events which we are accustomed to regard from quite a different stand point. It will popularize knowledge upon subjects heretofore restricted to archæologists.

This entrancing and instructive book of 596 pages, bound in excellent style, is sold for $1.-25—same price as "The Prince of the House of David."

Evans of Philadelphia, has purchased 10,-000 copies of "The Pillar of Fire," and 5,000 of the "Prince of the House of David," and will mail a handsome Gift, with either book, on receipt of the price and twenty-one cents for postage.

A new Classified Catalogue of Standard Books, in every department of Literature, with a new list of Gifts for 1859, has just been issued by Evans, and will be mailed free, on application. Address G. G EVANS, 439 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

THE BOOK OF ANECDOTES, AND BUDGET OF FUN. G. G. EVANS, publisher, No. 439 Chesnut Street, Philadelphia.

We have here a neat volume, containing a capital budget of fun, being filled with the most laughable sayings and jokes of celebrated wits and humorists. The publication, too, is well-timed, as the traveling season is about to commence, and we can hardly imagine a work better calculated to employ our leisure, as a reading car. Merriment, too, to go[illegible] or a railway It chases away care and enlivens ennui. In the language of the poet, it is wise to "laugh while you may—be candid when you can."

This mirth-provoking book is sold at the low price of One Dollar. EVANS will mail a copy and a handsome present to all persons remitting one dollar for the book, and twenty cents for postage. Address G. G. EVANS, Publisher, 439 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

CONCLUSION OF THE SICKLES CASE.

Acquittal of the Defendant!!

[By Telegraph to the Bedford Gazette.]

Philadelphia, April 26, 1859.

The Sickles case was submitted to the jury this afternoon, who after an absence of one hour returned and gave a verdict of not guilty.

D. J. CHAPMAN.

☞The procession of the Odd Fellows, on Tuesday last, came off very pleasantly. The Address of Dr. Hickok was an able effort and seemed to please all who heard it. The Doctor concluded by quoting the immortal "Abou Ben Adhem" of Leigh Hunt, which in itself ought to be sufficient to "bring the house down," any day.

☞The "Democratic Standard" is the title of a paper just started at Doylestown, Bucks county, by MESSRS. BEANS AND KUSTER. It is a neatly printed and ably edited sheet, and what is more, is soundly Democratic. We wish the proprietors much success, which they will hardly fail of, as their firm has got "the Beans."

THE CUBA FILLIBUSTER EXCITEMENT.—A good deal of excitement has been created in this city and throughout the country by the statement that an expedition has been fitted out from here to Cuba, and that the Island is on the eve of witnessing another fillibuster excitement like that it experienced during the Lopez invasions.

We have obtained the following facts in relation to the matter from a reliable source, Don Jose Elias Hernandez, one of the ex-members of the last Cuban Junta that was established in this city, left here about three weeks since with a small number of Cuban exiles, on board of an American schooner, with the avowed purpose of throwing themselves ashore on some part of the eastern end of the Island, and endeavoring to create a revolution. None of the other members of the late Cuban Junta, nor of the Americans that were connected with their operations, have any participation in the plan of Senor Hernandez, or have lent him any countenance in his present step.

Rumor has largely augmented the numbers of Cubans that have gone with Senor Hernandez, and we have reliable information that he has no connection with any American organization of character or numbers. The Cuban residents here do not sanction his present movement, which they look upon as the height of Quixotism and folly, though very many of them sympathise with his wishes to see his country freed from its subjugation to Spain. It is not believed either that Senor Hernandez has connections with any extensive organization in Cuba, as he is known to hold social views which are not entertained by the great majority of the people of that island. Should the expedition ever land in Cuba, of which there are strong doubts, it can do no good to any one, and only bring destruction upon its own members.

For reasons entirely disconnected with this step of Senor Hernandez, our city has lately been visited by a number of Spanish spies.—These are continually finding new proofs of the existence of a large filibuster organization here, to operate against Cuba, and all kinds of reports are circulated by them. Among the latest reports made by them to the Captain General at Havana, is one stating that the Order of the Sons of Malta is the cover of the movement they pretend to have discovered. While it is to be regretted that any enthusiasts should undertake an attempt like that we are speaking of, their movements should not be looked upon as being an expression of the popular sentiment, either in this country or in Cuba.—N. Y. Herald.

DISTRUST OF THE PEOPLE.

In this country there have always been many politicians belonging, as their occasions might serve, to different parties, who have been distinguished by no characteristic more marked than their distrust of the people.

This distrust is shown in various ways:—in contempt, sometimes, for what they call "the populace," or the "popular" judgment and taste; at other times, by disregard of the most absurd manifestations of the personal popularity of public functionaries; and, again, by efforts to play upon those whom they despise, or at least doubt, by various sorts of trick, stratagem, and imposture.

The instincts of some, and honest impulses of others, among such men, naturally drive them into OPPOSITION to the Democracy; and the more candid and disinterested among them have, at different eras of our political history, openly avowed their antagonism under the names of Federalists or Whigs. With the leaders and the rank and file of this sort it is easy to deal; they are open and above-board; and at the least, as well as at the best, they are quite harmless.

Candid and honest enough to express their hearty, if not rancorous, distrust of Democracy, they must be ever in a hopeless minority in a Nation wherein, by the very nature of our political institutions and social life, and individual aspirations, Democracy must be paramount in some form or other.

But, from time to time—as at this hour—there have been found persons making noisy and incessant professions of attachment to the Democratic cause—assuming the name of "the party,"—and boastfully pretending to express its opinions and feelings, and yet ignoring the deliberate and settled, the wise and dispassionate judgment of the PEOPLE. These persons are notable to every attentive observer for every quality which can designate and define the spirit and the aims of FACTION.

At present they display their factious animus by the intemperance and unscrupulousness of their attacks upon the man whom the people of this Union elevated to the Chief Magistracy. Mr. Buchanan could not, of course, by his policy, or his patronage, or his courtesies, satisfy the personal and variant, and, in many instances, contradictory views and wishes of these self-seeking pretenders to authoritative position and leadership in the Democratic ranks. So [illegible] at an important crisis] deserted the Administration at an important crisis would not only preserve what character they possessed, in the act of desertion, but also transfer the masses, by whom they professed to be backed, into the camp of the opposition. This fancy, we presume, is now patent to themselves as the merest illusion. They are not recognised by the adversaries of Democracy as quite so mighty, by talents, influence, or character, political, social, or personal, as they expected to be acknowledged; and they are acute enough to discover also that the PEOPLE, of whom they never thought, except as a mass to be cajoled, or wheedled, or squeezed into such form as suited their desires and aims, are still the hearty friends and ready supporters of the Chief Magistrate.—Washington Constitution.

Why am I a Democrat?

This is a strange question. The usual answers about political measures I need not give you; but I will tell you why. Democracy is the party of progress and of the people. You know that the Opposition never originated anything. In regard to State or national measures, what has been with them is the rule; with the Democracy it is what ought to be the measure. Democracy is not afraid to check corporate power, to aim at such policy as will make wealth equal, as near as the accidents which happen to mankind will permit. Democracy, too, is American; for though it held in contempt the midnight Americanism, commonly called Know-Nothingism, and defeated it, yet Democracy is truly American.—It separates from Old Word forms—from Aristocratic privilege, has helped to found new States, new law systems, new constitutions.—It takes the lead in progress, in living education, in literature and in political science. Are judges to be restricted? Democracy does it. Is a foreign power to be battled against, our territory to be preserved, our national honor to be vindicated, new territory to be acquired? It is from a Democratic Administration this is looked to be accomplished; and it is. From the acquisition of Louisiana to the present day, Democracy has dared everything; acquisition and diplomacy; war, to maintain the nation's honor. Democracy, too, accomplishes what it undertakes. Does it war upon a National Bank as inimical to public rights? Away goes the Bank, and bursts and blows to atoms, to show that Democracy is right. Does it propose a better means to preserve the public money—the Independent Treasury? It is enacted; and the test of war, panic, and revulsion vindicate Democratic sagacity. The Opposition to the Democracy never manage to pass a great measure into a law that will stay on the statute-book. The national laws are the work of Democrats.

Do the Democracy inaugurate a new policy in Territories? They carry it out and freedom is the result. There is a noble daring about the Democrats too; they are not always trying to be popular—they would rather be right; and in the long run they prove to be.—They have bull-dog tenacity. Trifles don't discourage them or break their organization.—They are the same, fifty years back, to-day, and will be in matter of principle, fifty years hence. They progress, it is true, but it is in the development of ideas and measures, carrying out the great principles which lie at the foundation of free government. They go for the principles and men—not men without the principles. When you are a member of the Democratic party, you are not sure it is true, but that occasionally in a man or a measure, they may be somewhat mistaken, but you are sure of pledging allegiance to great principles; you are sure of effort for great truths, and you need not fear to-morrow or next day you'll have a new name, new leaders, and new principles, and have to ask, as a great opposition man once did: "Where am I to go?" The path of the Democracy is straight, steadily traversed, without turning to the right or left, or to northern sectional or southern disunion principle. It is upward and onward, with a march as steady and keeping step and time with the onward march of our country's glory, prosperity, and greatness. I could not be a true patriot unless I were a Democrat. Do not wonder, then, that with heart, soul, and intellect, I am a Democrat, and shall be so while life lasts. I could be nothing else.—Extract.

TO CONSUMPTIVES.—Persons of a consumptive tendency have need to be very careful in the outset of a cough, and betake themselves in time, to a proper remedy. A cough is always evidently of irritation in the throat and lungs, resulting from some obstruction of the skin. In order to prevent these attacks, guard the feet from damp and wet and above all, take DR. KEYSER'S Pectoral Cough Syrup upon the first approach of a cough or sore throat, and check the disease thereby in its infancy. There is nothing like attacking disease on its first approach. By due attention to this advice you will save much suffering and sometimes prolong life. Even when consumption has become seated, this medicine will mitigate the suffering has cured some very bad cases. Sold at Harry's, Bedford, and at Colvin's, Schellsburg.

Have had the surest demonstration in the following certificate that their manufacture of Salamander Safes has at length fully warranted the representations which have been made of them as rendering an undoubted security against the terrific element:

Philadelphia, April 12th, 1856.

Messrs. EVANS & WATSON,—Gentlemen,—It affords us the highest satisfaction to state to you, that owing to the very protective qualities of two of the Salamander Safes which we purchased of you some few months since, we saved a large portion of our jewelry, and all our books, papers, &c., exposed to the calamitous fire in Ranstead Place, on the morning of the 11th instant.

When we reflect that these Safes were located in the fourth story of the building we occupied, and that they fell subsequently into a heap of burning ruins, where the vast concentration of heat caused the brass plates to melt, we cannot but regard the preservation of their valuable contents as most convincing proof of the great security afforded by your Safes.

We shall take much pleasure in recommending them to men of business as a sure reliance against fire.

LATE FIRE IN DUBUQUE, IOWA.

DUBUQUE, Jan. 7, 1859.

GENTS :— I am requested by Mr. T. A. C. Cochrane, of this place, to say to you that on the morning of the 4th instant, about 3 o'clock, his store took fire, and the entire stock of goods were destroyed. The heat became so suddenly intense that none of the goods could possibly be saved; but fortunately his books and papers which were in one of your Champion Safes, were all preserved perfectly. And well they may be called Champion, for during the whole conflagration there was one incessant pouring of flame directly upon the sale which contained them. And still, upon opening it, the inside was found to be scarcely warm, while the outside was most severely scorched.

Yours truly,
N. A. McCLURE.

The result was, we gathered a fine yield of large potatoes from every hill, with no small ones—a very important consideration in harvesting or picking them up. Beside, we had no diseased or unsound ones ; although in the adjoining ground, where we planted whole potatoes, there were many unsound ones at the harvest. Hence we believe, that where there are large quantities of the old seed to rot in the hill, it is likely to affect the young tubers unfavorably ; and also where there is too much seed in a hill, it produces too many tubers, so that the young potatoes grow badly crowded

Nycum's Improved

CAST-IRON CARRIAGE HUB.

THE undersigned believes that he has invented a cast iron carriage hub which far excels all others now in use, for strength, neatness and durability, and that it only needs to be examined, and its merits tested; to secure its universal approval and adoption. Indeed it is no longer an experiment, it having been effectually tried by the best judges in our country, and pronounced one of the Greatest Improvements of the Age !

Several vehicles have been in use over two years with the Improved Hub attached, and the wheels are still as perfect as when they left the shop, the unavoidable wear excepted.

This is the only Cast Iron Hub ever invented suitable for light wheels.

This imprevement is of such a nature that one or more spokes may be taken out changed or replaced without disturbing the other portion of the wheel. Where a wood hub is used, if a spoke happens to become, broken, it is necessary to cut the tire and separate the felloes, to get at the damaged part. The wheel must be then recomposed, the tire rewelded and reset. All this involves a considerable expense and loss of time.

In the present Improvement the inner ends of the spokes are secured in an Iron Hub, which consists mainly of two shells fastened together with screws. By simply unscrewing the nuts and taking off the back shell, any one of the spokes may be removed or changed, and the hub again put together, leaving the wheel as solid and firm as ever, all

WITHIN THE SPACE OF A FEW MINUTES.

This method of constructing Iron Hub Wheels gives them unusual strength, besides obviating several other objections that have heretofore attended their use. The cost of manufacture is also greatly reduced.

LIGHTNESS AND NEATNESS

The subscriber Agent for Bedford County, will dispose of Township and shop rights on reasonable terms. WILLIAM O'NEAL, Agent.

THE

PREPARED BY DR. SANDFORD,

COMPOUNDED ENTIRELY FROM GUMS,

Is one of the best purgative and liver medicines now before the public, that acts as a Cathartic, easier, milder, and more effectual than any other medicine known. It is not only a Cathartic, but a Liver remedy, acting first on the Liver to eject its morbid matter, then on the stomach and bowels to carry off that matter, thus accomplishing two purposes effectually, without any of the painful feelings experenced in the operations of most Catharties. It strengthens the system at the same time that it purges it; and when taken daily in moderate doses will strenthen and build it up with unusual rapidly

The LIVER is one of the principal regulators of the ahuman body; and when it performs its functions well, the powers of the system are fully developed. The stomach is almost entirely dependent on the healthy action of the Liver for the proper performance of its functions; when the stomach is at fault, the bowels are at fault, and the whole system suffers in consequence of one organ—the Liver—having ceased to do its duty. For the diseases of the proprietors has of that organ, one practice of more than twenty years, to find some remedy wherewith to counteract the many derangements to which it is liable.

To prove that this remedy is at last found, any person troubled with Liver Complaint, in any of its forms, has but to a bottle, and conviction is certain.

These Gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, purifying the blood, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

Billious attacks are cured, and what is better, prevented, by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One dose after eating is suficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently, and cures Costiveness.

One dose taken after each meal will cure Dyspepsie. ☞One dose of two teaspoonfulls will always relieve Sick Headache.

One bottle taken for female obstruction, removes the cause of the disease and makes a perfect cure. Only one dose immediately relieve Cholic while one dose often repeated is a sure cure for Cholera Morbus and a preventive of Cholera.

☞Only one bottle is needed to throw out of the system the effects of medicine after a long sickness. One bottle taken for Jaundice removes all sallowness or unnatural color from the skin.

One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite, and makes food digest well.— One dose often repeated cures, Chronic Diarrhœa, in its worst forms, while Summer and Bowel complaints yield almost to the first dose. One or two doses cures attacks caused by Worms in Children; there is no surer, safer, or speedier remedy in the world, as it never fails.

We take pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventive for Fever and Ague, Chill Fever and all Fevers of a Billious Type. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues. All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

☞MIX WATER IN THE MOUTH WITH THE INVIGORATOR, and swallow both together.

THE LIVER INVIGORATOR

Is a scientific medical discovery, and is daily working cures, almost too great to believe. It cures as if by magic, even the first dose giving benefit, and seldom more than one bottle is required to cure any kind of Liver Complaint, from the worst Jaundice or Dyspepsia to a common Headache, all of which are the result of a Diseased Liver.

JOY TO THE ADMIRERS OF

A FINE HEAD OF

RICH GLOSSY HAIR.

Talk of beauty, and it cannot exist without a fine head of hair, then read the following, and if you ask more, see circular around each bottle, and no one can doubt.

Professor Wood's Hair Restorative.—We call the attention of all, old and young, to this wonderful preparation, which turns back to its original color, gray hair—covers the head of the bald with a luxuriant growth—removes the dandruff, itching, and all cutaneous eruptions—causes a centinnal flow of the natural fluids; and hence, if used as a regular dressing for the hair will preserve its color, and keep it from falling to extreme old age, in all its natural beauty. We call then upon the bald, the grey, or diseased in scalp, to use it; and surely the young will not, as they value the flowing locks, or the witching curl, ever be without it. Its praise is upon the tongue of thousands.

The Agent for Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative in New Haven, received the following letter in regard to the Restorative, a few weeks since:

DEEP RIVER, CON., July 23, 1858.

Mr. Levenworth—Sir: I have been troubled with dandruff or scurf on my head for more than a year, my hair began to come out, scurf and hair together. I saw in a New Haven paper about "Wood's Hair Restorative" as a cure. I called at your store on the 1st of April last, and purchased one bottle to try it and I found to my satisfaction it was the thing, it removed the scurf and new hair began to grow; it is now two or three inches in length where it was all off. I have great faith in it. I wish you to send me two bottles more by Mr. Post, the bearer of this.— I don't know as any of the kind is used in this place, you may have a market for many bottles after it is known here. Yours with respect,

RUFUS PRATT.

PHILA., Sept., 9, 1857.

Prof. Wood—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering—in fact had. I have used but two half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well, studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation I can induce many others to try it.

Yours respectfully, D. R. THOMAS, M. D.
No. 464 Vine street.
VINCENNES, IA., June 22, 1856.

Prof. O. J. Wood: As you are about to manufacture and vend your recently discovered Hair Restorative, I will state, for whomsoever it may concern, that I have used it and known others to use it—that I have, for several years, been in the habit of using, other Hair Restoratives, and that I find yours vastly superior to any other I know. It entirely cleanses the head of dandruff, and with one month's proper use will restore any person's hair to the original youthful color and texture, giving it a healthy

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

A compound remedy, in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints: —

Scrofula and Scrofulous Complaints, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases, Ulcers, Pimples, Blotches, Tumors, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Syphilis and Syphilitic Affections, Mercurial Disease, Dropsy, Neuralgia or Tic Douloureux, Debility, Dyspepsia and Indigestion, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from Impurity of the Blood.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

SHOE STORE!

Ferguson & Co.,

HAVE just opened their new Store in "Anderson's Row" of buildings, nearly opposite the Gazette Office.

Their stock of Boots and Shoes for men, women and children, is certainly the best and cheapest that has ever been brought to Bedford, for three reasons.

First:—On account of the pressure of the times, they have been laid in at 30 cents on the dollar less than what was paid last year for the same goods.

Second:—They were bought for CASH, and the usual discounts made.

Third:—They were bought in much larger quantities than dry goods merchants buy them, and consequently were bought much lower.

If this is doubted, the evidence is on the stanp at the counter.

LADIES' DEPARTMENT.

The store room has been so arranged as to have a separate apartment for the Ladies, provided with comfortable chairs and stools where they cat sit and talk, or buy shoes as they please.
